Join Global Real Estate Forum

The Global Real Estate Forum fosters and provides a platform for international real estate business opportunities. The forum was formed to provide educational opportunities for those REALTORS® who have an interest in working with foreign nationals, either in the United States or abroad. In addition, the Global Real Estate Forum aims to provide members with educational and networking opportunities with appropriate trade professional organizations.

Profit from International Investors in U.S. Real Estate

Foreign investors are scooping up U.S. real estate and accounted for $82 billion in sales in 2011. Join the C.A.R. Global Real Estate Forum for a luncheon panel discussion by three global transaction experts who will present powerful ways to increase your earnings by making investors in U.S. real estate your best clients, both here and abroad.
