

6/7/2007 Women's Bar Association of Illinois

Attorney General Lisa Madigan stands with Karen McNulty Enright during the Women's Bar Association of Illinois' (WBAI) 93rd Annual Installation Dinner in Chicago. McNulty Enright was sworn in as the 2007-2008 president of the association. The WBAI was established in 1914 by nine women lawyers in the Chicago metropolitan area. It was founded to promote the interests and welfare of women lawyers and also to aid in the enactment of legislation for the common good and in the administration of justice.

6/7/2007 National Education for Women's Leadership Illinois Summer Institute

Attorney General Lisa Madigan stands with student participants in the National Education for Women's (NEW) Leadership Illinois Summer Institute during a visit to the James R. Thompson Center in Chicago. The week-long summer workshop is sponsored by the University of Illinois' Institute of Government and Public Affairs (IGPA) and the Conference of Women Legislators (COWL) and is a part of a nationwide network designed to promote public service careers for women.

6/5/2007 Rotary Club of Chicago

Attorney General Lisa Madigan stands with Don Garner, president of the Rotary Club of Chicago's Board of Directors, during the group's weekly meeting. Madigan was the featured speaker during their luncheon forum series and spoke about Internet safety.

6/4/2007 Rainbow PUSH Women's Luncheon

Attorney General Lisa Madigan stands with the Reverend Willie Barrow, chairman emeritus of the Rainbow PUSH Coalition, during the group's Women's Luncheon in Rosemont. The luncheon was part of the Coalition's six-day Citizenship Education Fund Annual Conference 2007. This year's conference theme is, "A More Perfect Union: Green Lining Redlined America," and the theme of the Women's Luncheon is, "Women: Standards of Dignity, Decency & Equality."

6/2/2007 CoolGlobes CoolGala

Attorney General Lisa Madigan stands with Wendy Abrams, left, chairwoman and founder of "Cool Globes Hot Ideas for a Cooler Planet" during the opening of the CoolGlobes exhibit in Chicago. Also joining them were Eric Nonacs of the Clinton Foundation and Diane Cardwell of The New York Times. From June through September, the City of Chicago is hosting the exhibit "CoolGlobes: Hot Ideas for a Cooler Planet," an innovative project that uses the medium of public art to inspire individuals and organizations to take action against global warming. The exhibit will be on display along Chicago's lakefront near the Museum Campus.

More Photos...