

College of Arts and Sciences

Distinguished Lecture Series

in collaboration with

Office of International Services

Presents

Donald W. Garner, Esq., President Fulbright Association of Chicago

"The Complexities of Employment for International Students"

Thursday, September 4, 2003

4:00 p.m. E-Lounge

Donald Garner, President of the Fulbright Association of Chicago and partner in LL.M. Law Group, Immigration Section will present the first lecture of our fall series "The Complexities of Employment for International Students". Garner will discuss key immigration issues related to international student employment in the post 9/11 era. GSU students, faculty staff and the community at large are encouraged to attend.

Distinguished Lecture Series are free and open to the public. For additional information contact S. Sanderson at 708-235-3956.